

Stretford community news

by Peter Devine >0161 211 2817 >peter.devine@stretfordandurmstonadvertiser.co.uk

■ THE Friends of Victoria Park group is holding a Feed the Birds Day on Saturday, October 30, between 10am and noon. The free event – at the park's community building – is suitable for all ages, and is part of the RSPB Feed the Bird's week-end.

The group is also holding a Halloween lantern and craft making event on the same day between 2pm and 4pm.

The event comes ahead of a parade of the lanterns and spooky crafts between 5pm and 7pm.

The lantern making costs £1 per person. For more information visit www.fovps.org.uk, telephone 07718287131 or email parkfriends@hotmail.com.

■ A PAIR of straighteners

Fears over car chaos rejected

RESIDENTS worried about parking chaos have lost their fight against a bid to turn a library into a church.

The householders say they have no objections to the Church of God of Prophecy occupying the old Firwood Library, but are worried about where worshippers will park.

Dist councillors said those

