

Stretford & Urmston
messengernewspapers.co.uk
Messenger

Thursday, October 4, 2007

Volunteers use flower power in Victoria Park

THE Friends of Victoria Park held their annual 'bulb planting' day earlier this month. The children pictured were among the many volunteers who helped plant 4,500 crocuses in drifts along a bank, as well as thousands of daffodils, narcissi, snowdrops and English bluebells.