

WORK IS BLOOMING GREAT

CHILDREN from Victoria Park Infants School helped to create a wild flower garden in Victoria Park and countryside department and the friends of Victoria Park.

They scattered grasses and wild flower seed in a newly created area.

Financial support came from the Rotary Club of Stretford, Trafford council's parks

The children hope to create an area that will attract birds, bees and butterflies to the park.

Pictured are Alexander, aged five, and Charlotte, aged six.