

News in brief

PICNIC: Stretford residents are being invited to a community picnic on their doorstep.

On Bank Holiday Monday, Victoria Park in Stretford will play host to the picnic, where there will be a tempting selection of cakes and light refreshments on offer to those who don't quite pack enough in their picnic.

The event will not be at the mercy of the great British weather, as organisers - the Friends of Victoria Park - will be opening up the community building next to the over-5s play area.