Clean up with the Friends

THE Friends of Victoria Park in Stretford are holding their annual clean-up day on Saturday, between 11am and 3pm.

Jobs to do include applying wood preserve to carved sculptures and benches, a litter pick and general tidy-up.

Volunteers will get a free hot drink, hot-dog, and a biscuit.

Meet at the community building near the over-fives play area.

On March 27, the Friends are also organising their first star-gazing event.

Come to the park for a 7pm start. It's timed to coincide with Earth Hour, from 8.30pm to 9.30pm, when people are asked to switch off lights for one hour.
