Crematorium and Dunham Lawn Cemetery, Denzell Gardens in Altrincham, Flixton Gardens, Halecroft and John Leigh Parks in Altrincham, Trafford Ecology Park, set in the heart of Trafford Park, Urmston Cemetery, Stretford's Victoria Park and Walkden Gardens, Woodheys Park and Worthington Park, all in Sale.

Executive Councillor Mrs June Reilly was one of the first to congratulate everyone involved for their hard work to make sure local parks and green spaces remained attractive and appealing environments which could be enjoyed by everyone.

"These flags represent the commitment and dedication of everyone involved. We are delighted to be recognised as leading the way when it comes to providing fantastic opportunities and environments for young and old alike to enjoy our local parks and green spaces.

"It's not just our parks that have been recognised however, with Altrincham Crematorium and Dunham Lawn Cemetery and Urmston Cemetery also receiving 'Green Flags'. This recognises our commitment to provide attractive, peaceful places where, during times of sadness and grief, people can take a few moments to remember loved ones or have time for themselves.

"All this, together with winning back the 'Green Flag' for Sale's Walkden Gardens couldn't have been achieved without the determination of everyone involved. While this success is brilliant, I know people will now be even more determined to do even better next year," she said.

Executive Councillor Mrs Paula Pearson said she too was thrilled with this year's achievement.

Friends of Walkden Gardens representatives celebrate 'Green Flag' success with Council staff.

"This phenomenal success has been greatly valued and has great potential and I am sure it will endure for many more years achieved by the partnership between the community friends groups and the Council's parks team. This partnership is
